

WESTPORT FLY

SALTWATER GUIDE SERVICE

Capt. Chris Killenberg – Capt. Parker Mauck present:

Westport Fish Camps

Introducing 'Westport Fish Camp'. A unique fly fishing lodge experience on the New England coast. Anglers will experience the world-class saltwater fly fishing of the amazing Westport River estuary and surrounding coastal waters, while enjoying camaraderie, lodging, and meals at the historic Paquachuck Inn at Westport Point, Massachusetts.

Westport Fish Camp is a 3-day fishing immersion, including 20 hours of fishing over 4 fishing sessions. Eight anglers, two per boat, will chase striped bass and bluefish in the Westport River estuary and on the reefs, rips, and flats of the ocean waters from Newport to the Elizabeth Islands.

Anglers will be guided by Westport Fly's Captain Parker Mauck and Captain Chris Killenberg, and two accomplished 'Guest Guides' known for their fly fishing expertise and intimate knowledge of the local waters.

Itinerary:

Day One

- 3:00pm Arrive at the Paquachuck Inn, check in, gear up, intro to Captains
- 5:00pm Fish (2.5 hours)
Westport River / Local Buzzard's Bay
'Dusk Patrol': typically topwater, worm hatch, breaking fish
- 7:30pm Freshen up / change
- 8:00pm BBQ dinner and socialize at the Inn
Fishing reports, morning boat assignments
Cash bar
- PM Lodging at the Paquachuck Inn

Day Two

- 5:00am Wake up
- 5:30am Fish (9 hours)
Westport River / Buzzard's Bay / Sakonnet River / Elizabeth Islands
Typically topwater early, followed by sight-casting flats,
hunting blitzes, or casting on structure.
- 2:30pm Relax, nap, get a beer at the oyster bar next door, whatever.
- 5:00pm Fish (2.5 hours)
Westport River / Local Buzzard's Bay
'Dusk Patrol': typically topwater, worm hatch, breaking fish
- 7:30pm Freshen up / change
- 8:00pm Dinner at the famous Back Eddy Restaurant
Captain's reports, recaps, boat assignments
- PM Lodging at the Paquachuck Inn

Day Three

- 5:00am Wake up
- 5:30am Fish (6 hours)
Westport River / Buzzard's Bay / Sakonnet River / Elizabeth Islands
Typically topwater early, followed by sight-casting flats,
hunting blitzes, or casting on structure.
- 11:30am - 12:00pm Check out

Fish Camp Dates:

May 2023

Day 1: Tuesday May 16

Day 2: Wednesday May 17

Day 3: Thursday May 18

June 2023

Day 1: Tuesday June 13

Day 2: Wednesday June 14

Day 3: Thursday June 15

What's included:

- 2 anglers per boat, guided by local USCG licensed captains
- All tackle, flies, etc. provided (also welcome to bring your own)
- Fishing license not required (covered by guide's vessel)
- 2 nights lodging (single occupancy / shared bath) in the historic Paquachuck Inn
- Boxed breakfasts and lunches on board; dinner at the Inn on Day 1

What's not included:

- Travel to/from Westport Point, Massachusetts
- Guide Tips
- Day 2 dinner at the Back Eddy Restaurant
- Cash bar at the Inn

Guest Guides:

- Captain Ray Jarvis (May, June)

Ray Jarvis is a lifelong angler, raised in Mattapoisett, Massachusetts. He grew up fishing any and all waters, and is an accomplished multi-species angler. With a background in fisheries biology, Captain Ray has extensive knowledge to share with clients.

- Captain Sam Barnard (May)

Sam Barnard is the former owner of Firefly Outfitters in Boston. He has been guiding fly and light-tackle spin anglers for over 20 years in Boston Harbor, Martha's Vineyard, the Elizabeth Islands, Buzzards Bay, Little Compton, and the Westport, Sakonnet, and Slocum Rivers. Captain Sam specializes in sight fishing for big stripers in skinny water.

- Captain Jim Barr (June)

Jim Barr is the owner/operator of Skinny Water Charters, based in Newport, Rhode Island. He is a Certified Flycasting Instructor, and founding partner of the Rhode Island School of Fly Fishing. Captain Jim is an authority on, and the pre-eminent guide for, the renowned "worm hatch" in the salt ponds of Rhode Island.

Paquachuck Inn

Back Eddy Restaurant

---

Spots available on a first come-first served basis.

For more information, or to reserve a spot, contact:

Captain Parker Mauck
captain.parker@westportfly.com
508-496-8682